

Reservations

If you would like to reserve the Community Center, a Ramada, Ball Field, or the City Pool, you should start by contacting the Recreation Department to check for availability prior to making plans. If you are reserving a facility, you will need to fill out a form. All forms are available online. We are available to assist you with questions and reservations.

In some cases, a Special Event Permit Application may be required for events on public and private properties. The purpose of this application is to increase communication and awareness to ensure your event is clean, safe, and beneficial to all citizens. It is our hope that your event will enhance our City and bring credit to your organization.

Certificate of Insurance

If a Certificate of Insurance has been requested for your event or activity, it is required the City of Benson be named as an additional insured on your policy for one million dollars per occurrence.

Certificate of Insurance should read:
City of Benson
Attn: Dorthey Moncada
120 W. 6th Street
Benson, AZ 85602

It is required in the State of Arizona that an Endorsement (proof insures affording coverage has been notified) be provided by your broker when issuing an additional insured policy. Certificates of Insurance will not be accepted without the Endorsement.
